PROVIDENCE & PERSEVERANCE

We Must Rejoice in Providence if We Are to Persevere as a People

Wee shall by plantinge there enlarge the glory of the gospel, and from England plante sincere religion, and provide a safe and a sure place to receive people from all partes of the worlds that are forced to flee for the truthe of Gods worde. —Richard Hakluyt, Jamestown Founder

America's first published author was Captain John Smith who described the arrival of the Jamestown settlers in 1607 as an act of providential goodness. America's spiritual "first family," the

SHIPS AT DOCK IN JAMESTOWN HARBOR

Mathers of New England, authored "The Doctrine of Divine Providence." America's first charter as an independent nation, the Declaration of Independence, announced that our ability to persevere as a nation rested in our "firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence." Just weeks before the Declaration was signed, America's first great political mentor, the Rev. John Witherspoon (himself a signer of the Declaration and the tutor to one sixth of the members of our Constitutional Convention) authored "The Dominion of Providence Over the Passions of Men." Even America's first president regularly invoked the God of providence in his writings.

It is fair to say that there is no Western nation in history with a legacy of nation-builders more firmly committed to the doctrine of providence than the United States. That doctrine is stated in the Westminster Confession:

God, the great Creator of all things, doth uphold, direct, dispose, and govern all creatures, actions, and things, from the greatest even to the least, by his most wise and holy providence, according to his infallible foreknowledge, and the free and immutable counsel of his own will, to the praise of the glory of his wisdom, power, justice, goodness, and mercy.

Thus, gratitude to the sovereign God for His many providential blessings is not only biblical, it is richly American.

There are two great providential landmarks to the dawn of American liberty. The first is Jamestown and the second Plymouth. Both were birthed out of evangelical zeal to see the spread of Christianity. Both involved intrepid men who risked much in the hope of blessing generations yet to be born. Of the two, Jamestown was the first. To the legacy of Jamestown, Americans owe many of their most noteworthy principles of self-government.

Her founding in 1607 resulted in North America's introduction to the ancient Christian common law with its origins in the Law of Moses and the Magna Carta. This common law would later be incorporated by direct reference into the United States Constitution. To Jamestown we owe America's first great experiment in republican representative government, a model that would later be adopted by the Founding Fathers as the basic construct of civil government in a free society. Jamestown gave the American people their first Protestant Christian worship services, church buildings, and baptisms. America's first interracial marriage took place in Jamestown between America's first baptized, Christian convert, Pocahontas, and a devout farmer named John Rolfe.

The legacy of Jamestown is also one of Christian manliness, the most notable example of which was Captain John Smith, a pious leader and God's ordained agent for the preservation of the colony.

For two hundred years, Americans have recognized the importance of commemorating the providential goodness of the Lord through our birth at Jamestown. In 1807 for the two hundredth, 1857 for the 250th, 1907 for the three hundredth, and then again in 1957 for the 350th anniversary celebration of America's birthday at Jamestown, our nation was enthusiastically reminded of these glorious acts of Divine Providence.

But for America's four hundredth birthday, what should be a celebration of gratitude to the Lord may be devolving into an homage to revisionist historiography and political correctness. In fact, officials in Virginia have decided to ban the use of the word "celebration" in the official quadricentennial events. As Mary Wade of the 2007 Jamestown steering committee explained, "You can't celebrate an invasion."

A recent New York Times article diminished the value of the quadricentennial and described Jamestown as "a town which disappeared into the mud." Even the Virginia Gazette published an article entitled "Jamestown not worth it," which bemoaned, "For a whole year or more we shall celebrate the fact that a bunch of British buffoons who knew nothing of what they were doing colonized a swamp for the sake of Christianizing Indians."

And herein lies the rub: The imperfect, but nonetheless overtly Christian worldview of the architects behind the Jamestown settlement and the founding of America is an offense to modern day humanists. Their answer: Reinterpret it, forget it, or denounce it—but whatever you do, don't celebrate it.

If such forces are successful, ours will be the first generation in the history of America at the time of a landmark historical celebration to officially and publicly despise our birthright and the providential hand of God in the life of our people. Because the Bible clearly teaches that those generations which forget the great deeds of God in the lives of their fathers are condemned to hopelessness (Ps. 78:8), Christians are duty-bound to consider our response.

At Vision Forum, our response is not to curse the darkness but to light a candle so bright that children from sea to shining sea will "remember the days of old" (Deut. 32:7) and learn about the "praises and wonderful works" that God did in the days of our fathers, so that "they might set their hope in the Lord" (Ps. 78:7).

"But God the guider of all good actions, forcing them by an extream storme to hull all night, did drive them by his providence to their desired Port."

—CAPTAIN JOHN SMITH

Beginning in 2005 and continuing through the end of 2007, Vision Forum has devoted its efforts to cultivating a culture of gratitude through the preservation, promotion, and praises of the providences of God. This began last year with a journey to Iwo Jima, a mission which resulted in the film The League of Grateful Sons. It continued with our History of the World Conference which traced in sixty-eight lectures six thousand years of earth history from a providential perspective.

For America's four hundredth birthday, Vision Forum Ministries hopes to rally the Christian community to express gratitude to the Lord through a year of teaching and a national celebration to be held near Jamestown, Virginia, on Fort Pocahontas, part of the ancestral estate of President John Tyler who keynoted the 250th anniversary celebration of Jamestown.

THE GROUNDS OF FORT POCAHONTAS: SITE OF OUR QUADRICENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

The march of Providence is so slow and our desires so impatient; the work of progress is so immense and our means of aiding it so feeble; the life of humanity is so long, that of the individual so brief, that we often see only the ebb of the advancing wave and are thus discouraged. It is history that teaches us to hope. —Robert E. Lee

It is the duty of the Christian community to offer perspective to America so that we can persevere as a people. George Washington, whose motto was "persevere," understood this duty. He wrote, "Perseverance and spirit have done wonders in all ages." I believe it will do wonders in ours.

A Tale of Courage and Faith in Old Jamestown

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD

A Story of Providence and Perseverance in Colonial Jamestown

By Mary Johnston,

Edited by Joshua and Sarah Wean

A fledgling colony on the shores of the James River struggles desperately to survive and earn the good will of the King of England while Spanish dons, ruthless pirates, and lurking Indians plot to destroy Jamestown and its handful of colonists. Meanwhile, a simple, godly soldier braves all odds to defend his honor and his duty to uphold God's sacred laws. The brother of the Indian princess Pocahontas fights fiercely for what he believes to be true, but on whose side? An evil English nobleman, empowered by the King, will stop at nothing to gain what his heart most desires, while young Lady Jocelyn Leigh, newly arrived from the King's court, must decide whether to honor her husband and her God or bow to a King's unrighteous command.

This enhanced edition of To Have and to Hold brings to life the exciting beginnings of America, weaving a story of adventure and intrigue with providence and perseverance in colonial Jamestown, while outlining the trials endured by our forefathers

"If you want to cultivate in your family the inestimable values of faith, courage, forgiveness, self-sacrificing love, perseverance, and hope—which are so necessary to the accomplishment of any great endeavor—then I recommend the exciting adventures so beautifully crafted in this historically based saga of early Jamestown."

What is the godly legacy of the fathers of World War II? Their story has not been told—until now!

More than 406,000 American men died during the second world war, leaving an estimated 183,000 children fatherless. Hundreds of thousands of other fathers did return from war, some who tragically never connected with their children. Meet tough-as-nails Marine “Colonel” Bill Henderson. He survived thirty-six days of brutal fighting on Iwo Jima and while in the midst of immoral wartime circumstances, maintained moral purity, because of the influence of his manly Christian father. Now in their eighties, these ancient warriors return to the black sand of Iwo Jima to disciple a new generation in the art of Christian manhood.

THE FAITH OF OUR FATHERS

Faithful Men and Women, Boys and Girls, Remember Their Fathers...

COMING IN ON A WING & A PRAYER

By Kelly J. Bradrick

We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old. (Psalm 44:1)

He was only five years old when a local barnstormer offered to take young Bill Brown for a flight in a biplane in exchange for one of his mother's home-cooked meals.

That day birthed a lifelong fascination with aviation. As a young man, he grew up near the home of the man who would become the most famous pilot of the Second World War—Jimmy Doolittle of the “Doolittle Raiders.”

By twenty-one, Brown had earned his own wings and found himself as a P-51 Mustang fighter pilot performing daring raids from battlefields like Iwo Jima. Ultimately he was shot down during a combat mission over Japan, but would live to become a dynamic servant of the Cross. Featured in the film, The League of Grateful Sons, Bill Brown is now the subject of a thrilling story of combat, faith, and fatherhood told through the eyes of granddaughter Kelly Bradrick. In Coming In on a Wing and a Prayer, a beautiful, pictorially rich book, Kelly recounts the life of her flyboy grandfather as a letter to generations yet to be born. One of the most encouraging books you will read this year. Hardback. 55 pgs.  55860 | $16

AUTHOR KELLY BRADRICK WITH HER BROTHER, FATHER, AND GRANDFATHER

“We could not have imagined ahead of time the impact [The League of Grateful Sons] would have on us. To just say we loved the documentary would not express accurately the fullness of our hearts.... [B]ecause of it, we love the Lord all the more, who through that generation preserved the freedoms we enjoy today. Thank you for not letting us forget.”

—The Chris C. Family

“I showed the video to my family... and my father who fought at Iwo Jima was much moved. For the first time, he opened up and started answering our questions about [the battle].”

—A GRATEFUL SON

“[A] truly wonderful documentary.... After watching it, my heart was moved so much that within the next two weeks I started interviewing WWII vets (one of whom gave me his entire war journal) and will interview more for an article in our local paper.”

MANLINESS

“Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.”

I CORINTHIANS 16:13

*“...be thou strong therefore,
and shew thyself a man.”*

I KINGS 2:2

New!

By Douglas W. Phillips

The Bible presents a doctrine of manliness. Historically, manliness played a central role in the cultural theology of Western Christendom. The twentieth century, with its emphasis on feminism, a co-ed military, and mothers leaving the home for the workforce, wreaked havoc on the doctrine of manliness. In recent years, there has been a resurgence of interest in the meaning of manliness, but most secular writers who cover this theme look at it from a humanistic and Greek rather than a biblical perspective. In this powerful message delivered at the tenth annual Christian Boys' and Men's Titanic Society Anniversary Celebration, Doug Phillips explains that manly men are men of duty. They possess a faith which overcomes fear. They sacrifice for the weak and act with honor—no matter the circumstance. Includes observations from Scripture, Teddy Roosevelt, Winston Churchill, and others. Compact Disc. 59 mins.  58762 | $10

Manly Men Write Manly Letters

THE LETTERS & LESSONS OF TEDDY ROOSEVELT FOR HIS SONS

Compiled and Edited by Douglas W. Phillips

Imagine what it would have been like to have had Theodore Roosevelt for a father. Here is a bold adventurer, an insatiable hunter, an audacious politician, and also a daddy who loved to play with toys on the floor of the White House. Roosevelt simply adored his children, four of whom were boys, each of whom he was intent on turning into a man of action. His commitment was evident not only in the remarkable globe-trotting adventures on which they accompanied him, but also in the copious letters that he wrote to them, many of which communicated deep truths about manhood, Christianity, and courage. Roosevelt's words offer fascinating clues into the life of a man who vigorously sought to balance leadership and fatherhood. Paperback. 297 pgs.  64325 | $12

Indefatigable, Persevering, Manly Leadership

GEORGE WASHINGTON: AMERICA'S JOSHUA

By Douglas W. Phillips

At unique and decisive moments in history, God has raised up visionary men with the spirit and faith of Joshua to accomplish mighty works. For the patriots of 1776, General George Washington was that Joshua. A man of vision, gravitas, principle, and duty, Washington was the quintessential leader. His indefatigable resolve, self-discipline, and honorable conduct were vehicles of the Lord which sustained the patriot cause during its darkest hours. Most significantly, Washington demonstrated that truly successful leaders fear the Lord. Now, in this sweeping survey of the life of Washington, Doug Phillips demonstrates why these qualities earned him the moniker, "America's Joshua." Compact Disc. 73 mins.  47556 | $10

INDEPENDENCE DAY

Lessons from King Hezekiah on Freedom and Independence

By Douglas W. Phillips

Their longing for liberty and their knowledge of God's Holy Word led our founding fathers to lay down their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor for the hope of future generations. In this message, Doug Phillips draws a comparison worthy of deep consideration between King Hezekiah of biblical times, his leadership to remove idolatry from his nation while restoring godly worship, and the work of the Puritans and America's founding fathers as they labored to establish a new nation under God. He points out the importance of honoring jurisdictions and honoring the Law of God. Compact Disc. 69 mins.  47552 | $10

THE BIBLE LESSONS OF JOHN QUINCY ADAMS FOR HIS SON

Compiled and Edited by Douglas W. Phillips

"My Dear Son, I have thought if in addition to the hour which I daily give to the reading of the Bible, I should also from time to time (and especially on the Sabbath) apply another hour occasionally to communicate to you the reflections that arise in my mind upon its perusal, it might . . . fix and promote my own attention to the excellent instructions of that sacred Book. . . ."—J.Q.A.

Historian David McCullough has described President John Quincy Adams as one of the most principled and certainly one of the most intelligent men ever to occupy the White House. Born in 1767, Adams served his country as secretary, ambassador, United States Senator, Secretary of State, President, and finally Representative in Congress. However, all of these remarkable achievements are secondary to his role as father. Though a busy man, Adams made it his priority to study the Bible and to train his son to love God's Holy Word. His example stands out for all men as a shepherd who loved his family flock. Paperback. 91 pgs.  17762 | $10

Holiness for Boys

THOUGHTS FOR YOUNG MEN

By J.C. Ryle, Foreword by Douglas W. Phillips

There are four great temptations that plague most young men: sloth, lust, love of pleasure, and peer pressure. J.C. Ryle, the last of the great Puritans, tackles each of these subjects with a tenderness and tact which is unsurpassed. If it was difficult to be a young man in the days of the nineteenth century when Ryle first penned Thoughts for Young Men, it is all the more difficult to be a young man in the twenty-first century world of image-overload, radical individualism, and rampant sensuality. I was first introduced to Ryle about twenty years ago, and he remains my favorite teacher on personal holiness. We read this book over and over again to the whole family. A Parable for Our Time

DAVID AND BATHSHEBA

By Douglas W. Phillips

The true-life drama of David and Bathsheba remains among the most iconic morality stories of love and lust, honor and betrayal, nobility and tyranny, and judgment and redemption in all of history. The lessons from the sins, repentance, and life consequences of David’s actions transcend time and culture, but are especially relevant in our modern age of technology-driven immorality and office environments which breed adulterous relationships. In this stirring talk, Doug Phillips presents this tale of sin and redemption with practical applications for today’s husbands and wives. Compact Disc. 78 mins.  27890 | $10

FAMILY VISION

The Remarkable Influence of Visionary Daughters on the Kingdom of God

SO MUCH MORE

By Anna Sofia and Elizabeth Botkin

This book is not another Christian-teenage-girl “survival guide.” So Much More shows how Christian girls can wage war with the world and win. The Botkin sisters focus on how young women can rise above their God-hating culture and change it for the better.

Today, countless young ladies face difficult problems and challenging questions. While many long for godly purpose in their lives, their bewilderment mounts when they observe broken homes, distant fathers, overwhelmed mothers, degrading college courses, and a lack of spiritual guidance—both at home and at church. As hope for security and stability fades, it is no wonder that many young ladies feel orphaned, unprotected, and without hope for their futures.

Within the pages of this book, discover practical, biblical solutions for the young woman who wants to do so much more than just “survive” in a savagely feministic, anti-Christian culture. Find the answers a girl is not likely to get from her church, her peers, or her culture. Hardback. 352 pgs.  57882 | $18

“I have known Anna and Elizabeth Botkin since they were little girls. When they asked me to read through this manuscript, I felt a tingle of anticipation. Page after page, I laughed, rejoiced, wept, and felt ‘hallelujahs!’ rising in my throat. You hold in your hands a rare gem of a book, the fruit of godly parenting and thoroughly scriptural teaching. Its vision is one that should awaken every daughter to the calling she has to advance the kingdom of God.”

A Million-Mile Journey of Family Discipleship, Home Education, and Gospel Evangelism

TEN P'S IN A POD

By Arnold Pent III

Future historians may look back on the Arnold Pent family and describe them as the “first modern home school family.” Before there were any state home schooling organizations, Mr. Pent declared his independence from government education and his dependence on Christ in the training of his children. No one told him to do this. He simply read the Bible and determined to obey God—regardless of the outcome. Like all great visionary leaders, Mr. Pent was a man with many wonderful directives for his family. The world would probably describe these initiatives as eccentricities, but they were not; he discovered something that all fathers would be well advised to consider: The most God-blessed expressions of biblical fatherhood are cultivated by taking the path less traveled.

Over the years, readers have been attracted to the endearing stories of family life found in such classics as Kathryn Forbes’ Mama’s Bank Account, Clarence Day’s Life with Father, and Frank Gilbreth’s Cheaper by the Dozen. The beauty of this book is that it combines the best elements of those classics, but with an uncompromising Gospel message. After three years in print, Ten P’s in a Pod remains a Vision Forum best-seller. Hardback. 198 pgs.  85726 | $18

“Before seatbelt laws and car seats, before the suburban fad and the rise of the fifteen-passenger van, the ten-person Pent family was driving an interesting collection of automobiles one million miles around and around the country, preaching about the saving love of Jesus and the importance of the Bible in daily life.”

Train Your Children to Appreciate the Beauty and Power of Words

VERSES OF VIRTUE

The Poetry and Prose of Christian Womanhood
Compiled and Edited by Elizabeth Beall Phillips

Poetry and the beauty of language have always been a part of God's program for instilling purpose in the minds and hearts of women. In fact, the first words of love communicated by man of woman were poetic words of appreciation and understanding. Drawing upon the beauty of parallelism, Adam declared of Eve, "This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh."

"I received Verses of Virtue yesterday. I am so grateful to have such a strong support as I seek to grow from a 'beautiful girl' into a godly woman."

—A GRATEFUL CUSTOMER

Throughout all the Scriptures, from the Psalms of David to the poetry of Isaiah, the verses of Deborah to the Song of Solomon, and even the divinely inspired prose of John foretelling the return of the bridegroom, our Lord uses the beauty of language to inspire a Christian vision for motherhood and home which once defined the landscape of American family life. Beall Phillips seeks to revive this vision in Verses of Virtue. Drawing from some of the most heart-warming and inspirational verses from Scripture, America's illustrious past, and antiquity, she provides women with a volume brimming with encouragement. POEMS FOR PATRIARCHS

The Verse and Prose of Christian Manhood
Compiled and Edited by Douglas W. Phillips

One reason men lack vision is because they lack poetry in their lives. Men no longer sing or recite inspirational verse, and our boys are no longer required to memorize the great psalms, hymns, and poems of Christian manhood. This should come as no surprise. The twentieth century has wreaked havoc upon chivalry and manhood. The transformation of poetry from the ennobling to the coarse, the banal, or the irrelevant is as much a sign of our national loss of manhood as it is of the decline of decency and civilization.

In Poems for Patriarchs, Doug Phillips has compiled his favorite inspirational and vision-communicating selections. This collection includes poems and prose both obscure and popular, but selected because of the profound way they speak to the most important issues in a man's life. They are neither fluffy nor frilly, foppish nor foolish, but virile and often sage, both in their composition and character. Each chapter in the book contains a generous number of selections, some new, some ancient, but all designed to address the various biblical roles, relationships, and seasons in a man's life—from early boyhood to his twilight years.

A Biblical Blueprint for a Happy Home

HOME-MAKING

By J.R. Miller

Don't let the title fool you. This is not just a book for women who keep home. Home-Making is an uncompromising vision statement for the domestic bliss and cultural dominion of the Christian family. The message of Home-Making is powerful: "Sisters, Brothers, Husbands, Wives—home life is meant to be beautiful, ennobling, and victorious!" God intends for each person, from parent to child, to play a role in family life, the ultimate goal of which is the transformation of the individual, the home, and the society for the glory of God.

Miller writes truth that we need to hear, but are usually afraid to say. He carefully addresses each member of the family, managing to find the perfect balance between inspiration and exhortation. My wife writes, "I was deeply moved as I read the beautiful descriptions of biblical family relationships." Hardback. 266 pgs.  34801 | $18

Why and How to Honor Your Mother

MOTHER

By Kathleen Norris

Edited by Jennie Chancey

This is a difficult age in which to be a woman. The woman who aspires to raise children for the glory of God, to develop the ministry of the home, or to co-labor with her husband is deemed "old-fashioned" or "unfulfilled." The modern lure of independence and career has bewitched an entire generation to exchange the beauty of Christian womanhood for the temporary enticements of a society at war with the family.

Amidst this confusion, Kathleen Norris's Mother is a refreshing call to sanity. Mother is the fictional tale of a young lady who leaves home and repudiates family life in the hope of finding personal fulfillment through independence and a career. But God dramatically changes her heart as she realizes that wealth and position are illusory and that independence can enslave a young lady. She discovers that the greatest woman she has ever known is her mother, and now she longs for home and motherhood. Hardback. 202 pgs.  34898 | $18

The Right Stuff

HOW TO EVALUATE A SUITOR

Biblical Wisdom for Fathers, Mothers, Eligible Daughters, and Would-Be Grooms

By Douglas W. Phillips

There he is in his splendor. What a guy! He's the man who hopes to walk off with your daughter . . . hold on a moment. Maybe he isn't the best thing since sliced bread. Maybe he is trouble with a capital "T." Or maybe he is a great guy, but just not the great guy God intends for your little girl. How can you tell?

In this fast-paced message, Doug Phillips explains that the greatest gift a dad will ever give away is his daughter. He examines the biblical qualifications for suitors and concludes that the Bible does not anticipate perfection, but minimal threshold requirements must be met. He examines the need for careful discrimination for determining if two are "equally yoked" and the doctrine of the "bride's price." Phillips also points out biblical examples of wickedness by fathers toward suitors and urges dads to act decisively, but with charity, respect, and love. 2 Compact Discs. 90 mins.  24253 | $16

Stand By Your Man

THE WISE WOMAN'S GUIDE TO BLESSING HER HUSBAND'S VISION

By Douglas W. Phillips

The Christian community is full of dear ladies discouraged because their husbands lack vision to lead the family with gusto. In some cases, the men are simply overwhelmed with present responsibilities. In other cases, they lack a biblical framework for household leadership. It certainly does not help when men have poor role models in their own lives, which is the case for a growing majority of husbands. Often wives cry out, "Help, my husband just doesn't get it," or, "I want more children, but my husband says 'no,'" or even, "My husband is nervous about home schooling." For more than ten years, Doug and Beall Phillips have spoken with hundreds who share these sentiments. But, too often, wives contribute to the problem through a wrong response. The great news is that the Bible anticipates this crisis of leadership in the home and provides clear direction for wives. Wise women will strive to bless their husbands' vision by embracing the specific affirmative and negative biblical commands given to them for this very purpose. Those who do so will become a sanctifying influence on their household, grow in spiritual maturity, and may become God's vehicle for their husband's spiritual revival. This series is meant to encourage both wives and husbands with the principles and the practicalities for men and women growing in family vision for the Lord. 2 Compact Discs. 103 mins.  68221 | $16

The Reformers' View of Patriarchy COURTSHIP, ENGAGEMENT, AND MARRIAGE

By John Witte, Jr. and Robert M. Kingdon

How should a man court a woman? What role should parents play in the process? Is it possible to promise marriage upon certain conditions? If an engaged woman was deserted by her fiancé, how long need she wait before seeking another husband? Long before the modern “courtship” books of our day, the great reformer John Calvin wrote extensively on this foundational subject. His articulation and defense of biblical principles of patriarchy remain a powerful tool for pastors, fathers and students of Scripture. While the foreword to this book leaves much to be desired, the book itself is an invaluable compendium of Calvin’s thought on marital relations. Witte and Kingdon move gracefully from theological tracts and legal treatises to court records and correspondence, stopping to take note of revealing incidents from John Calvin’s own life—including his courtship. Busy Fathers Can Come Home!

SAFELY HOME

By Tom Eldredge, Foreword by Douglas W. Phillips

A tragic failing of the contemporary church is its ineffectiveness in passing on the faith to the next generation. The children of believers too often abandon the faith of their fathers and blend into an increasingly godless society. This is happening despite a growing smorgasbord of children’s programs and family ministries. Church shepherds realize that something is wrong, but are at a loss as to what to do about it. Tom Eldredge explains that adding new youth programs is not the solution. He shows how the original conflict in the Garden between God’s methods and those of the enemy were repeated in the clash of the Greek (humanist) and Hebrew (biblical) worldviews, and how we continue with the same struggle today. The choice has always been knowledge or relationship. Which is more important? Practical guidelines are offered to help churches and men rediscover distinctively Hebrew and biblical patterns for discipleship and family life. Paperback. 170 pgs. BOOK 45987 | $10

Our Fathers' Fathers

THE ROLE OF GRANDFATHERS IN THE LOCAL CHURCH

By Douglas W. Phillips

Did you know that the Bible has more to say about grandfathers than even fathers? But when was the last time you heard any teaching on the biblical role of grandfathers? If the answer is “never,” then you may be another statistic in a culture that has forsaken biblical family life. The truth is this: rather than retiring from responsibility, “spending their children’s inheritance,” or being relegated to live their final days in solitude, the Bible pictures a world in which the greatest spiritual contributions in a man’s life come when he achieves the status of grandfather. Doug Phillips addresses with boldness and beauty the phenomenal vision of biblical grandfathering. Whether you are a grandfather, know one, or will someday be one, this recording is important for your listening library. Compact Disc. 60 mins.  59469 | $10

Biblical Womanhood Victorious

THE ROLE OF WOMEN IN THE LOCAL CHURCH

By Douglas W. Phillips

One of the greatest secrets for cultural transformation is the power of godly women in the local church. The Bible teaches that daughters, single women, married women, and widows each play a distinct and crucial role, not only in the life of the family, but among the community of saints in the local congregation. When these roles are embraced with vision, the family and the church are economically powerful, spiritually stronger, and in the best position to be salt and light to the world. With humor and biblical insight, Doug Phillips addresses this all-important issue and casts a vision of hope for Christian women in the twenty-first century. Compact Disc. 56 mins.  59468 | $10

Who Controls the Womb?

BE FRUITFUL AND MULTIPLY

What the Bible Says about Having Children

By Nancy Campbell, Foreword by Douglas W. Phillips

Can you imagine attending a wedding where the family of the bride prayed for her to have vast legions of children who would grow up to have dominion in the land for the glory of God? This was precisely the blessing offered by the sisters of Rebekah upon her marriage to Isaac. These sentiments beautifully harmonize with scripture after scripture which extol the virtue of trusting the Lord to control the womb. For six thousand years, believers viewed children as a blessing and reward of the Lord greatly to be desired. It was widely accepted that those who cut off their seed usually did so in violation of the express commands of God. Only in the last seventy-five years has child prevention become acceptable in the Church. Perhaps more than any other philosophical shift in the history of the Church, the modern, anti-child philosophy has changed the way we view the role of fathers, mothers, family life, and multi-generational faithfulness. But genuine questions persist: Does the Bible address the question of child prevention? Is cutting off the godly seed ever an act of “good stewardship?” What about economic considerations? What about “natural” family planning? Be Fruitful and Multiply answers these questions and makes the case that Christians should do more than just “trust God” for children. We should cry out to the Lord to bless the fruit of the womb. Paperback. 228 pgs.  84325 | $14

Brotherly Love

MAKING BROTHERS AND SISTERS BEST FRIENDS

By Sarah, Stephen, and Grace Mally

This painfully honest, hilarious book offers a creative look at how to build relationships between siblings. The goal is not just for brothers and sisters to get along, but to be best friends. Siblings Sarah, Stephen, and Grace Mally each wrote a section of every chapter, offering their unique perspective with riotous personal anecdotes, all related to how the three of them became best friends. I am always delightfully surprised by how well the children remember and apply what we have read. Paperback. 272 pgs.

Heart Surgery for Discontent Children

THE HEART OF ANGER

By Lou Priolo

This book is mandatory. We live in an angry age, and too often we see this spirit reflected on the countenance of our children. Parents may unwittingly encourage this spirit by provoking their children to anger. Children can easily develop the habit to think, act, and be motivated by anger—especially if parents lack the biblical wisdom to correct such problems of the heart. I love this book because it is practical, biblical, and completely psychology-free. Every parent should read this!

THE ADVENTURE OF MISSIONARY HEROISM

By John C. Lambert, Edited by Joshua M. Wean

Among the annals of missionary service around the world are countless true stories of little known, intrepid men and women who endured innumerable dangers, toils, tragedies, and triumphs for the sake of the Gospel. These are not make-believe narratives or fictional tales, but stirring adventures of godly men and women braving wild animals, shipwrecks, and savage natives—all for the sake of sharing the good news of Jesus Christ. Welcome to The Adventure of Missionary Heroism! Originally published in 1907, this book will become a favorite family read-aloud. Travel with Dr. Chamberlain on his medical journeys through the jungles of India as he outwits tigers and serpents, or follow Alexander Mackay through his extraordinary efforts in darkest Africa. Then set sail with the intrepid James “Tamate” Chalmers, and stand bravely by his side among the head-hunters of New Guinea. These thrilling accounts of courage and unwavering faith in the Savior will inspire young and old alike to give their all for Christ. Hardback. 374 pgs.  74642 | $24

A Son's Love and Devotion to His Father that Resulted in the Conversion of Thousands

MISSIONARY PATRIARCH: THE TRUE STORY OF JOHN G. PATON, EVANGELIST AMONG THE SOUTH SEA CANNIBALS

This is the greatest missionary story you will ever read. Period. But it is much more than a missionary story. The autobiography of John G. Paton is a true-to-life primer on multi-generational faithfulness. Perhaps more than any other autobiography, this magnificent volume will provide a vivid description of the impact of biblical fatherhood on a son, and the reason why the greatest men are men who learn to honor their fathers and mothers. When I share this message before an audience, I usually begin by quoting at length an autobiographical account, penned by John G. Paton in the nineteenth century, describing how his father's love and training prepared him to endure bitter hardship, to persevere against unspeakably difficult circumstances, and to resist sin. We have republished it because it contains the finest testimony of love and devotion between a father and son that I have ever read outside the Scriptures as John G. Paton speaks to us from the past with a healthy antidote to the challenges of our day. Hardback. 524 pgs.  55442 | $24

ADVENTURE AND EVANGELISM

The True Story of Parents Who Risked All for Their Children and Produced a Great Nation

OF PLYMOUTH PLANTATION

By Governor William Bradford

Perfect for Thanksgiving!

Few people realize that America was founded because a devout band of non-conformist Christians lived and breathed the covenant promises of Jesus Christ. Though the Pilgrims left England because of religious persecution, they actually left Holland to protect their children from ungodly influences. These parents risked everything to protect their young. Bradford boldly proclaimed that these families were willing to sacrifice their lives, if necessary, “even though they [the Pilgrims] be but stepping stones” for future generations of Christians they would never meet. Of Plymouth Plantation is one of the five most inspirational books I have ever read. It is the true story of fifty “average” people who changed the world because they shared a multi-generational vision. For almost two decades, it has been a cherished family tradition to read this book aloud each Thanksgiving. My father, the family patriarch, gathers his many children and grandchildren around the table and reads for several hours the story of Bradford and the heroic Pilgrims. We cannot truly appreciate the significance of Thanksgiving if we do not know the real story. My personal library consists of thousands of volumes, but this is one of my most treasured. Your child should not be considered fully educated before reading Of Plymouth Plantation. Hardback. 353 pgs.  84149 | $24

PLYMOUTH IN THE WORDS OF HER FOUNDERS:

A VISITOR'S GUIDE TO AMERICA'S HOMETOWN

By Dr. Paul Jehle

Plymouth is a town that has been besieged by revisionist historians and special interest groups intent on presenting an anti-Christian and politically-correct history of America's spiritual birthplace. Thanks to the testimony of historian and pastor Dr. Paul Jehle, the tide is turning. For the first time ever, visitors to Plymouth can have a well-documented overview of the monuments and sites of America's spiritual birthplace in the words of the founders of Plymouth and America themselves. Published as a special project of Vision Forum Ministries and the Plymouth Rock Foundation, this pocket guide is indispensable to the student of American history or the Christian who wants to defend the righteous actions of the Pilgrim Fathers. HEROES AND HISTORIES

The Historical Adventures of

G.A. HENTY

"My husband discovered G.A. Henty books when our children were young, and he read them to our son each night before bedtime.... [O]ur son read them to his sons, and one of those sons has another son who will hear them, also. God bless Vision Forum!"

—MRS. AMELANG

WHEN YOUR SON picks up a G.A. Henty historical novel, he will travel back in time to some of the greatest events in the history of the world. He will rejoice with an ancient barbarian who receives Christ, ride with Lee through the battlefields of Virginia, travel with Conquistadors to distant lands, and watch the fall of the Temple of Jerusalem. Most importantly, he will see the world through the lens of predominately biblical Christianity, learning that men are to live a life of duty and sacrifice, and that God requires even little boys to act with nobility.

Once upon a time, these books could be found on the shelves of many great leaders, including Nobel Prize winners, historians, prime ministers, generals, and preachers. We are pleased to present a new lineup of Henty books. May these books inspire the next generation of American boys to be men of honor, courage, and steadfast faith in Christ.

"To be a true hero you must be a true Christian. To sum up then, heroism is largely based on two qualities—truthfulness and unselfishness, a readiness to put one's own pleasure aside for that of others, to be courteous to all, kind to those younger than yourself, helpful to your parents, even if helpfulness demands some slight sacrifice of your own pleasure. . . . You must remember that these two qualities are the sign of Christian heroism."

Women and Children First!

THE SINKING OF THE TITANIC AND GREAT SEA DISASTERS

Edited by Marshall Logan

Introduction by Douglas W. Phillips

Years ago, I met Bob Garner, executive producer at Focus on the Family Films. When he was a boy, his grandmother showed him a copy of an old, illustrated book about the Titanic. The book left a deep impression on his seven-year-old heart. Years later, while working with Robert Ballard, discoverer of the Titanic, God used the memory of that book and the story of the Titanic to bring Bob to the Lord. Intrigued, I asked my staff to track down an original copy. What I found fascinated me:

the true account of men who gave up their lives for women and children because they grew up in a culture of Christian family values. We reproduced The Sinking of the Titanic to give you the look and feel of a vintage classic. Hardback. 358 pgs.  42411 | $24

THE BIRKENHEAD DRILL

By Douglas W. Phillips

This is the true story of the H.M. Troopship Birkenhead, of the origin of the phrase “women and children first,” and of the heroism of an entire ship of men who chose to be eaten by sharks or drown rather than let one woman or child die. A pastor from Connecticut writes, “I sat up last night and was moved to tears, particularly at Corporal W. Smith’s testimony. I was struck at his concluding remarks, ‘I join my regiment, and march and fight as if there had been no Birkenhead disaster. It is soldiering—and it is discipline.’ My, how times have changed. No trauma counseling. No counseling for those who were related to those who were traumatized, or who thought they might have been traumatized had they been there, or who were traumatized by learning of the event. No lawsuits were filed. Thank you. I will be using it to continue teaching my boys about courageous manhood.” Paperback. 83 pgs.  42157 | $8

HEROISM OF THE FATHERS

What causes men to act with nobility and heroism?

What is the link between fatherhood and leadership in times of crisis? In a never-to-be-repeated special evening dedicated to 150 years of heroic manhood, Doug Phillips answers these questions and presents the remarkable story of multi-generational fatherhood and Christian sacrifice from Teddy

Roosevelt to Lord Baden Powell, from the Birkenhead to the Titanic. Join Doug and an ensemble of speakers for a night to remember as they celebrate the anniversaries of the sinking of the Titanic and the Birkenhead. 2 Compact Discs. 93 mins.  57632 | $16

THE LIFE AND CAMPAIGNS OF STONEWALL JACKSON

By Robert Lewis Dabney

Stonewall Jackson—his very name evokes the image of the solid, immovable Confederate General whose sobriquet, earned at the Battle of First Manassas, no longer requires quotation marks. His pious Christian character, unwavering commitment to duty, and role as affectionate husband—as well as his magnificent service to Virginia—were carefully recorded by his close friend, Robert Lewis Dabney. The battle accounts resonate with the first-hand knowledge of a man who has seen the face of battle, as Major Dabney often did while serving as General Jackson's adjutant in the Valley Campaign. His account of military life in the field with Jackson provides poignant insight into the character of the General as they discuss theology and military history, pray together, and gallop to the sound of the guns. Jackson's theology was supremely orthodox, rooted in the biblical tradition of Knox, Calvin, and Edwards. In a day bereft of true heroes, Stonewall shows us how a Christian soldier should live and die. Includes a free booklet of Robert Lewis Dabney quotes. Hardback. 742 pgs.  43252 | $25

Revival During the War Between the States

CHRIST IN THE CAMP

By J. William Jones

"I can only say that I am a poor sinner, trusting in Christ alone for salvation."

—General Robert E. Lee, 1864

"We have preaching or prayer-meetings almost every day, and the attendance is large . . . all seem approachable on the subject of religion." —Chaplain J.C. Hiden, Charlottesville Hospital

In the midst of the titanic struggle of the American War Between the States, a spiritual war for the souls of men was waged with equal vigor. Between 1861 and 1865, many thousands of soldiers professed Christ as their Savior and Lord, and many more were renewed in their commitment to serve God in camp and battlefield.

Herein are recorded stories of the heroism of chaplains who stood in the line of battle to minister to the fallen and to work at the bedside of fatally ill comrades, some of whom were themselves counted among the slain. It tells of worship services in camps attended by ten, a hundred, or a thousand men gathered to hear the Word of God expounded. Here, too, we read of the Christian generals who supported the many facets of gospel work: Robert E. Lee, Stonewall Jackson, Jeb Stuart, and others. Hardback. 624 pgs.  34408 | $25

THE CHILDREN'S HOUR

*Between the dark and the daylight,
When the night is beginning to lower,
Comes a pause in the day's occupations,
That is known as the Children's Hour.*

—HENRY WADSWORTH LONGFELLOW

The Lamplighter LIBRARY

For nearly a decade, I have been reading the beautiful Gospel Lamplighter novels to my children. We anxiously await the release of each new volume, as they are a regular part of our spiritual reading diet. Oftentimes, the sweetest part of our day is that precious time when the children are gathered around Beall and me in joyful anticipation of a special story. I live for the squeals of delight and plaintive appeals for “Just one more story, Daddy.” On many occasions, I have seen the Holy Spirit touch the hearts of my little children and draw them closer to the Savior through the reading of these precious tales.

The Only Verse-by-Verse Commentary of the Entire Bible in the History of the Church!

EXPOSITIONS OF THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS

New!

By John Gill

"When I was a young man, my spiritual father, mentor, and pastor gave me a copy of John Gill. He told me it was the most trustworthy and foundational commentary in print. He explained to me that my hero Charles Spurgeon had feasted on John Gill's writings when he was a young man. Nearly twenty-five years later, I want to once again publicly thank Pastor Robert Gifford for introducing me to the great John Gill who has remained my constant companion in my life. His cogent, orthodox, and careful scholarship has provided me with untold blessings. It does my heart great good to think that Dr. Gill's incomparable commentaries are once again available for the libraries of Christian families."

—DOUGLAS W. PHILLIPS

In the history of the Christian church, there has only been one comprehensive, verse-by-verse commentary of the entire Bible. Thank God that the author of this commentary was a model of biblical orthodoxy and sound scholarship—Dr. John Gill (1697-1771).

Of Dr. Gill, the prince of preachers, Charles Spurgeon, wrote: "In some respects, he has no superior. For good, sound, massive, sober sense in commenting, who can excel Gill?"

Born at Kettering in Northamptonshire, England, John Gill became a Reformed clergyman who not only wrote the first verse-

REV. JOHN GILL, D.D.

"In some respects, [Gill] has no superior. He is always well worth consulting."

—CHARLES SPURGEON

by-verse commentary, but also wrote the first Baptist systematic theology. Dr. Samuel Stillman stated, "I have daily reason to bless God for your valuable Exposition . . . a work from which, I doubt not, the church will derive the greatest advantage to the end of time."

Perhaps the most notable benefit of Gill's Exposition of the Old and New Testaments is the fact that it contains the sense of the sacred text and doctrinal and practical truths set in a plain and easy light which is relevant, timely, and understandable for modern readers.

Vision Forum is pleased to announce the special reprint of the entire Gill Commentaries available for a limited time at an unbeatable price. The commentaries are printed with quality smyth-sewn stitching for durability and reinforced endsheets.

The series is hardcover with high-grade cloth and foil lettering on the covers. It is printed on acid-free paper. These beautiful books will last a lifetime and quickly become a treasure in your library.

For layman and scholar alike, Gill is a counselor to have on your shelf. Hardback. 9 Vols. 7,370 pgs. BOOK 22850 | ~~$300~~ $250 (Save $50) SPECIAL PRICE GOOD THROUGH DECEMBER 2006

Included free with purchase of the Expositions is a CD-ROM containing the collected writings of John Gill, including ten books he authored or edited and approximately one hundred sermons and other writings. The Return of the Bible Carried by Reformers and Pilgrim Fathers

THE 1599 GENEVA BIBLE

In a very real sense, we as Americans owe much of our rich spiritual heritage to the Geneva Bible—the Scriptures carried by Plymouth Pilgrims and great reformers. Nearly forgotten today, this version of the Holy Scriptures—first translated into English in 1560—created the conditions for a Christian reformation of life and culture the likes of which the world had never seen.

In 1553, Mary Tudor ascended the throne of England and set about to stamp out the Reformation, ordering the burning of all copies of the Bible in the English tongue and causing more than three hundred reformers to be burned at the stake. Bloody Mary's vicious crusade drove scores of English reformers to Geneva, including some of the finest biblical scholars in history. Together, these men produced a new English Bible based on the original languages and not beholden to any king or prelate—the Geneva Bible.

The Geneva Bible is the Bible of "firsts": It was the first Bible to qualify as a study Bible, providing readers with copious notes, cross-references, and commentary about the original manuscripts. It was the first Bible to be printed in a portable and affordable edition. And it was the first Bible to assign chapter and verse numbers, facilitating the location of passages, memorization, and recitation—and the nurture of a nation of Bible readers.

The Geneva Bible inspired those who championed self-government and civic virtue. Its mighty influence was manifest in the lives of Knox, Cromwell, and Shakespeare. And it was the 1599 Geneva Bible that the Pilgrims read as they arrived in the New World in 1620, deriving principles from its pages that helped lay the foundation-stones of liberty in the western hemisphere.

Now, Vision Forum is pleased to announce the re-release of the Geneva Bible in a superior quality genuine leather binding edition that features word-for-word accuracy with the 1599 Geneva Bible; original cross references; original study notes by Reformers; genuine leather; modern spelling; and easy-to-read print. THE ANNALS OF THE WORLD

What Augustine was for orthodoxy and Calvin was for theology, Archbishop James Ussher was for biblical historiography. No man in church history left a more indelible imprint on the thinking of Christians concerning the chronology of the ancient world than Ussher. Hundreds of years after first publishing this work, Ussher's scholarship has stood the test of time.

Updated from a seventeenth-century Latin manuscript to modern English, The Annals of the World contains the fascinating history of the ancients, from the Genesis creation to the destruction of the Jerusalem temple. Ussher traveled throughout Europe, gathering much information from the actual historical documents, many of which are now lost to the world.

The Annals of the World was so highly regarded for its accuracy, that its timeline (pointing to an earth of just over six thousand years) was included in the margins of many King James Version Bibles for three centuries. When the Church began to embrace evolutionary chronology, Ussher's notes were removed.

The Annals of the World is packaged in a beautiful display box, and the volume itself is smythe-sewn with gold-gilded edges and foil embossing. It includes eight appendices and contains over ten thousand footnotes from the original text, which have been updated with references from works in the Loeb Classical Library by Harvard Press.

*“The translation into English and publication of The Annals of the World, for the first time in almost four-hundred years, is one of the most significant Christian publishing events in years.”*

JAMES USSHER

The translation into English and publication of The Annals of the World, for the first time in almost four hundred years, is one of the most significant Christian publishing events in years. This is a multi-generational book meant to be passed on to your children. Christian fathers owe it to their posterity to acquire this volume and display it in a place of prominence in the family library.

Of Ussher, Dr. Francis Nigel Lee writes, “Raised in a Bible-believing Calvinistic environment, Dr. Ussher soaked himself in the Holy Scriptures without ceasing. He also read the Early Church Fathers—systematically, every day, for eighteen years. Head of Ireland's foremost Theological Faculty, Ussher was internationally the greatest Anglican antiquarian and theologian of his age—if not of all time.”

THE CHRONOLOGY OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

By Dr. Floyd Nolen Jones

Perhaps the best defense of the accuracy and trustworthiness of biblical chronology in print, Dr. Jones' important work has one goal: to demonstrate “that every chronological statement contained in the Sacred Writ is consistent with all other chronological statements contained therein.” Were the Hebrews in Egypt for 430 years or a shorter length of time? Were there 66, 70, or 75 “souls” in Egypt when Jacob arrived? Dr. Jones thoroughly investigates and answers the most perplexing chronological and mathematical quandaries in Scripture. Complete with forty-eight reliable explanatory texts, charts, and diagrams. Chronological charts included on CD-ROM. A phenomenal resource for your library. Hardback. 325 PGS. BOOK 45880 | $20

BACK TO GENESIS

An Uncompromising Defense of the Normative, Historical, Grammatical Understanding of the Book of Beginnings

It is impossible to have a coherent, biblical worldview without an acceptance of the historical, grammatical understanding of the book of Genesis. Taken from conferences featuring Dr. John Morris of the Institute for Creation Research and Doug Phillips, the Back to Genesis audio set presents an uncompromising look at the Book of Beginnings and its influence on science, theology, and ethics. This album addresses the fact that dinosaurs lived contemporaneously with man, the issue of starlight and time, and the fact that the geological column was primarily a result of the catastrophic events of Noah's day. The idea of scientific neutrality is eradicated, and the fact that all scientists bring religious bias to their work and data interpretation is clearly established.

THE GREAT DEBATE OVER BAPTISM AND THE COVENANT

By Douglas W. Phillips and William Einwechter

Whether you have a firm position on the issue of baptism or are seeking further clarity from the Scriptures, we believe you will find The Great Debate over Baptism and the Covenant to be an enormous blessing. In this CD recording, William Einwechter makes an exegetically derived covenantal argument that baptism is for those believers who have actually professed faith in Christ. With charity toward both dispensational Baptists and traditional Reformed paedobaptists, Mr. Einwechter makes the rigorous case that both positions are exegetically inadequate. 11 Compact Discs. VISION OF VICTORY

The Bible states that “where there is no vision, the people perish.” A corollary is that where there is no vision, the family perishes. Our families are perishing because they lack vision. Why do they lack vision? I believe that too often Christians look to the wrong source for vision. They look to pop culture, to themselves, or to their emotions for personal guidance. While acknowledging that the Bible is the Word of God, many still do not perceive that the Bible is truly sufficient for providing them answers to all matters of faith and practice. At Vision Forum, we firmly believe that the doctrine of the sufficiency of Scripture is foundational to a victorious worldview. This has been the theme at the family-based conferences sponsored by Vision Forum Ministries this past year, and is why we offer the Family Renewal Audio Library. These messages offer biblical answers to many of the most-asked questions from parents who long for a victorious family vision. Questions like: How do I build a family-centered lifestyle? • Should single mothers home educate? • How do I ensure that my daughter receives a thorough education and yet train her to be a virtuous “keeper at home?” • How do I teach my children to honor? • What role should church youth groups play in the life of my children? The messages are challenging, but it is our prayer that they will motivate the believer to “study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth” (II Timothy 2:15). Messages recorded on Compact Disc by Douglas W. Phillips.

WHAT'S A GIRL TO DO?

How to Wisely Invest Your Daughter's Time

A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways. The same is true of double-minded parents. Across America we have met parents who desperately want their daughters to grow to be virtuous women with a love for home. However, many of these same parents continue to build their daughters' future on a feminist model. Frankly, most Christians are unaware that the Bible offers clear guidelines for how wise parents can invest their daughters' time for the glory of God. This message offers hope and direction for parents and daughters. 55 mins.  68207 | $10

THE PROMISE

The Beauty and Power of the Fifth Commandment

Is it “well with you?” If not, it may be because there are unresolved issues relating to honor in your life. “Honor your father and mother” is the first command with a promise. When you practice honor, “it will be well with you.” But what does this mean? What are the consequences of dishonor? How do we honor wicked or perverse authority figures including parents who may be in rebellion before the Lord? This message has been shared with more than fifty thousand people, addressing the blessings associated with honor and how to instill honor in the hearts of your children. 60 mins.  68215 | $10

THE BLESSED MARRIAGE

A Vision for a Delightful and Significant Union

It breaks my heart to hear Christians belittle the significance of the precious gift called marriage. The Bible teaches that parents are to prepare their children for it, that

THE CHURCH AND FAMILY UNITY SERIES

Advanced Training for Christ-Centered, Family-Blessing Churches

How do I train my children to have convictions without becoming a legalist in the process? To what extent do I allow my children to be exposed to negative influences within our culture? How can I love and honor the local church, even when it is harming children through usurping the jurisdiction of the family? Through the carefully prepared messages of some of the finest scholars and preachers of our time, these questions and many others are answered with clarity and precision. UNITING CHURCH AND FAMILY

A National Conference Promoting Family-Friendly Churches

In August 2002, more than five hundred churchmen—including pastors, elders, and deacons—gathered in St. Louis for a historic conference dedicated to the reformation of the local church on a matter of pressing urgency: the relationship of the church to fatherhood and family. After more than a century of the devastating influence of feminism, government education, and mass marketing techniques, many parents are beginning to wonder whether church is still a safe place for their children.

In contrast, through movements like home education, key segments of the evangelical church are experiencing a revival of interest in fatherhood and family. However, as fathers and mothers have begun to turn their hearts to home, many have turned to the local church only to find opposition. Sadly, some churches actually persecute families who want to worship as a family or who express concern over church youth groups. Often, the tragic results are nomadic families who flit from church to church or renegades who refuse to place themselves under the accountability of a local church. Here, too, the damage to families is incalculable. God requires His people to be under biblical local churches with biblical preaching, biblical ordinances, and biblical discipline. So how do we unite church and family? Join R.C. Sproul, Jr., Doug Phillips, John Thompson, and many others to examine this watershed issue.

CHURCH AND FAMILY

Isolationism, Syncretism, or Kingdom-Advancing Holiness?

THE SPOTLESS BRIDE

By Douglas W. Phillips

“Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints” (Revelation 19:7,8). You cannot understand the Church if you cannot picture the glory of Christian marriage. The Bible communicates the beautiful image of our relationship with Christ in the context of love, espousal, and holy consummation. Like a bride for her groom, the Church is to be holy and spotless. But how does the bride of Christ remain pure in a pagan culture? In this controversial message, Doug Phillips challenges the adulterous behavior of the modern church and asserts the principle of holiness through cultural antithesis. HOW MODERN CHURCHES ARE HARMING FAMILIES

By John Thompson

This is a masterful presentation of the modern crisis between church and home by a man who wears the hats of father, teacher, and theologian. John Thompson addresses eight problems—wrong philosophies of church growth, how to meet the needs of a congregation, outreach, loyalty, shepherding families, socialization, ministry, and application of Scripture. In each case, John shows us that the Bible is the best solution for the problem. This is a life-changing message. 44 mins. Compact Disc.  65326 | $10

HOW GOD WANTS US TO WORSHIP HIM

By Dr. Joe Morecraft III,
Introduction by Douglas W. Phillips

When it comes to worship, the sad truth is that most Christians have traded their New Testament heritage for the hip and trendy, dispensing with the simplicity and beauty of New Testament worship. In this well-reasoned and exegetically sound treatise, Dr. Morecraft offers a principled defense for the Bible as the only guide for worship in the meeting of the church. In a day when the Sunday worship of evangelical churches is too often dominated by performers and youth culture, it is increasingly rare to find churches that take seriously the doctrine of sola scriptura and regulative worship. THE FAMILY WORSHIP BOOK

A Resource Book for Family Devotions, By Terry L. Johnson

When asked by men, “What can I do to bring vision to my family and win the hearts of my children?” my answer is to begin the daily practice of family worship. No other single act will do more to foster family unity than the regular practice of worshipping Christ as a family. This may be the most helpful toolbox available outside the Bible itself for conducting family worship. This book answers the five questions I hear from mothers and fathers desperate to begin the journey: What is family worship? Why should I do it? What practical tools do other families use in their family worship? How can I start? How do I make it a daily practice? Includes helpful checklists, guidelines, and reading resources. “One of the Ten Most Important Books in a Christian’s Library”

NOAH WEBSTER’S 1828 DICTIONARY

When Noah Webster first published this book, he understood that whoever defined the words of a culture would capture that culture. So he gave the American people a dictionary in which words have meaning in terms of their relationship to Jesus Christ. In fact, this is the only comprehensive dictionary of the English language in print that seeks to communicate a distinctively biblical worldview, even to the point of using Scripture in the definitions.

“This volume was produced during the years when the American home, church, and civil spheres were established upon a biblical worldview.”

Wise parents build worthy libraries to pass on to their children. Gigantic and oversized, this heavy book is perhaps second only to the Bible in terms of importance in your home. It is likely one of the ten most important books you will bring into your home for the education of your family. The Home School Curriculum of the Founding Fathers

THE ORIGINAL BLUE BACK SPELLER

The great American educator, Noah Webster, first published the Blue Back Speller in 1783. His goal was to provide a uniquely American, Christ-centered approach to training children. Little did he know the impact that this remarkable gem would have. Many of the Founding Fathers used this book to home school their children, and it is still our recommendation for you today. Most Influential Christian Textbook in History

THE NEW-ENGLAND PRIMER

Many scholars agree that most, if not all, of the Founding Fathers were taught to read and write using this volume, which is unsurpassed to this day for its excellence in practical training and Christian worldview. This is the book that introduced the children’s prayer, “Now I lay me down to sleep,” and which made the “Shorter Catechism” a staple of education for American children. Over five million copies were sold in the nineteenth century alone. Hardback. 80 pgs. BOOK 12755 | $9

The Case for Biblical Home Education

UPGRADE

By Kevin Swanson

New!

This new book by home educator and author Kevin Swanson reveals ten biblical, time-tested secrets to viewing education, which he defines as “the preparation of a child intellectually, emotionally, spiritually, and physically for life and for eternity,” and how they can be incorporated by parents into the homeschool environment. Swanson clearly guides the reader through that process, which focuses on the preeminence of character, one-on-one instruction, nurturing of individuality, and knowing the basics. Also included are helpful chapters about the raw data on education and the grander plan of raising children. Paperback. 211 pgs. BOOK 20995 | $15

COLLEGE WITHOUT COMPROMISE

By Scott & Kris Wightman, Foreword by R.C. Sproul, Jr.

In examining the need for higher education, the goal of the Christian should not be to “survive college.” The goal should be victory: to equip the next generation with the character and skills they need to fulfill their callings and lead effective lives for Christ. This book champions faithfulness, even as it counsels parents on how to start early with their children in preparing them for full-orbed training in their later years. It explains how to turn high-school coursework into college credit, pursue credit by examination, prepare for post-graduate work, and blend independent and traditional approaches to college training—all while emphasizing faith, purity, character, and servanthood. Paperback. 195 pgs. BOOK 52472 | $16

MAKING WISE DECISIONS ABOUT COLLEGE AND LIFE AFTER HOME SCHOOL

By Douglas W. Phillips

The majority of Christians approach the “who, what, when, why, where, and how” of higher education blindly. They are either handicapped by false notions that a college degree is a prerequisite for success, or they abandon altogether the importance of post-high school education. Neither is correct. In this controversial message, Doug Phillips seeks to clear away the intellectual and factual debris and open a path for parents to use clear biblical analysis to determine whether college is a wise choice for their child. Take a hard look at the realities of the college classroom and culture, and examine the strengths and weaknesses of various alternatives to college. 78 mins.

Stonewall Jackson's Beloved Esposa

BELOVED BRIDE: THE LETTERS OF STONEWALL JACKSON TO HIS WIFE

By Bill Potter, Foreword by Stephen Lang

He called her “my beloved esposa” because Anna was his dearest love on this earth. Ironically, while the great military exploits of General Stonewall Jackson are studied in military schools the world over, and his iron will and stern self-discipline have become legendary, little is said about his remarkable marriage. The real Thomas J. Jackson was a humble Christian and loving husband and father. The tender and instructive letters he wrote to his wife Anna are a model of godly leadership and covenantal faithfulness. From their courtship to their final days together, trace the true story of this remarkable couple through the letters of General Jackson to his bride. Even in the midst of the most arduous military campaigns, Stonewall took the time to send home extensive letters of love and devotion. Through all of this, General Jackson proved himself to be a model example for Christian husbands of the twenty-first century. This special edition book features a foreword by Stephen Lang, the actor who played “Stonewall” Jackson in the feature film, Gods and Generals, possibly the most significant and influential film of the decade to reflect Christian faithfulness and leadership. PATRIOTS VS. TORIES

Was There a Scriptural Basis for the American War for Independence?

God's Blessing on America

AMERICAN HISTORY TO 1865

By Rousas John Rushdoony

Dr. R.J. Rushdoony's American History to 1865 was one of the most influential American history series I studied during my high school years. More than any other series or book, these prepared me for the philosophical onslaught of historical revisionism I would later meet during my university days. Upon completion of this series, you will have a distinctively Christian understanding of almost three hundred years of American history up to 1865. Of particular interest are the legal issues behind the American War for Independence, the observations of De Tocqueville, the spiritual undergirdings of America's foundations, and the development of American culture by free men in an era of small government. Contains 18 audiocassettes and a total of 40 lectures. 18 hrs.  47042 | $88

Introduction to Christianity, Law, and Culture: A Video Curriculum

A Video Course on God, Government, Law, and Culture Designed to Supplement High School and Pre-Law Studies, Pastoral Ministry, and Legal Private Practice

Having grown up in and around politics for my entire life and practiced law in the defense of home school freedoms and parental rights, it is my observation that there are four key problems that undermine the ability of Christians to influence the society in which they live: Lack of confidence in the Word of God as the sufficient guide for law, ethics, and policy; ignorance of the biblical foundation for our common law; an ungodly dependence on pragmatic, rather than principled, methodologies; and failure to practice living out godly principles of self-government in our own homes. The Witherspoon School was founded to specifically address each of these issues.

Over the last six years, the Witherspoon School of Law and Public Policy has graduated hundreds of students, including home educators, law students, pastors, attorneys, judges, legislators, and many others who share a common vision to better understand the biblical foundations for law and public policy.

Recorded live from the 2005 Witherspoon School held in Luray, Virginia, here are thirteen messages on twelve DVDs. These lectures have been carefully selected to give high school and pre-law students a thorough introduction and crash course in American law and public policy from a biblical and historical perspective. Included are messages from Douglas Phillips, Esq., Chief Justice Roy Moore, Justice Tom Parker, Dr. Paul Jehle, Dr. John Eidsmoe, and William Einwechter. DVD. HOW TO DETHRONE THE IMPERIAL JUDICIARY

By Dr. Edwin Vieira

How will we hold those in judicial office accountable? The lives of millions of unborn babies rest in part on how this question is answered. For decades, federal courts have been "making up law." Liberal and conservative lawmakers have been reinforcing such behavior by appointing judges who believe that the immoral and unconstitutional decisions of renegade judges are legitimate. Incredibly, some of these men—professing Christians—demand that judges must be obeyed, even when they offer rulings which provide for the vivisection of little babies or seek to redefine the institution of marriage. But is that true? In his brilliant book, Dr. Edwin Vieira explains how issues like abortion and homosexual marriages can be resolved without special constitutional amendments. THE IMPORTANCE OF THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE

By Dr. George Grant

What do George W. Bush, Bill Clinton, John F. Kennedy, Harry Truman, Woodrow Wilson, Abraham Lincoln, and eight other American Presidents have in common? Each received less than a majority of the votes to gain the White House. From a constitutional perspective, there is just one reason why George Bush was elected president in 2000—the Electoral College. In this timely primer on the electoral process, Dr. George Grant not only makes the case for the brilliance, wisdom, and continuing necessity of the Electoral College, he teaches you how to defend it. FAMILY FILMS

WELCOME TO A NEW WORLD OF INDEPENDENT CHRISTIAN FILMMAKING

We live on the threshold of a revolution in independent Christian filmmaking. For the first time in more than half a century, Christians have the opportunity to change the terms of debate for this crucial medium of cultural influence by challenging the Hollywood giant. Like David's sling before Goliath's enormous sword, the weapons of this warfare are unconventional by industry standards, but when wielded with accuracy and faith, they can strike a devastating blow to the modern pagan elites who seek to crush the very witness of God in this nation.

In November 2004, more than seven hundred gathered for the first-ever San Antonio Independent Christian Film Festival and Jubilee Awards. Representing states from Oregon to Florida and foreign countries including England and Scotland, these filmmakers came together to advance a Christian vision of victory for film. Sponsored by Vision Forum Ministries, the festival featured thirty-eight film semi-finalists, the winner of which took home a $10,000 Grand Prize. The 2005 Film Festival drew from more than 130 film submissions and saw the start of the Christian Filmmakers Academy.

A VISION OF HOPE FOR RENEWING OUR CULTURE

"This series provides the information you must have to cut through the façades of Hollywood and unmask an industry committed to destroying the family."

—NICK LOGAN, CORNERSTONE CEO

HOLLYWOOD VS. CHRISTIAN CULTURE

America is discontent with Hollywood's monopolistic stranglehold on film and culture. The humanistic religious worldview of Hollywood elites and their bias against Christianity and the value system which it embodies has created a rift in American culture and profoundly damaged the American family. The future of our culture will be waged in the hearts and souls of the people of this nation.

This Hollywood vs. Christian Culture CD boxed set presents six powerful talks given at the 2004 San Antonio Independent Christian Film Festival that examine the worldview and philosophical differences between Hollywood and Christian culture, takes a behind-the-scenes look at Hollywood's actual history and agenda, and explains how film should captivate and convey truth and beauty. 6 Compact Discs. 332 mins. What a privilege to be the father of four precious daughters and husband to the greatest wife in the world. My constant prayer is that the Lord will continue to affirm them as women of God. This same prayer is the heart of our mission at Vision Forum. Since our founding in 1998, Vision Forum has been committed to the restoration of the Christian family. Our book catalog, our All-American Boy's Adventure Catalog, and the Beautiful Girlhood Collection are all designed to tackle different aspects of the cultural battle for the family.

We aspire, by the grace of God, to encourage the rebuilding of a culture of virtuous womanhood. In a world that frowns on femininity, that minimizes motherhood, and that belittles the beauty of being a true woman of God, we dare to believe that the biblical vision for girlhood is a glorious vision. It is, in fact, a beautiful vision. It is a vision for purity and contentment, for faith and fortitude, for enthusiasm and industry, for heritage and home, and for joy and friendship. It is a vision so bright and so wonderful that it must be boldly proclaimed. We are here to proclaim it. Amid a culture brimming with mixed messages, shallow and self-serving ideals, and depraved "role-models," may you and your precious daughters find the following pages to be a refreshing and edifying oasis of innocence.

Girlhood is a very brief season in the life of a young lady. Nurture it, protect it, and by God's grace, fill it with the principles and tools needed to make it truly beautiful.

DOUGLAS W. PHILLIPS, ESQ., PRESIDENT

Beautiful Girlhood is...

Faith & Fortitude

The spirit of beautiful girlhood is alive in the girl who, with courage and fortitude, perseveres through the many challenges of life. She realizes that "faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen," and consequently, strives for the principled course of action.

Enthusiasm & Industry

Proverbs tells us that a virtuous woman "works with her hands with delight," and "does not eat the bread of idleness." The truly beautiful girl is one who sees her life as a mission of service. What others view as a burden, she views as a blessing and opportunity.

Purity & Contentment

To be pure in body, mind, and spirit is more precious than all the promises the world offers. Young ladies who experience a beautiful girlhood guard their hearts against anything that would rob them of purity and are content to wait upon the Lord and trust the leadership of Mom and Dad.

Home & Hospitality

One of the defining qualities of beautiful girlhood is a love for home and hospitality. A young girl watches her mother and looks forward to the day when she, too, will have a family. While other girls are driven by wanderlust, the hospitable girl finds true contentment at home.

Femininity & Grace

The truly beautiful girl is one who radiates that inner grace which only comes from the confidence in being a woman of God. She enjoys dressing like a lady and being about the business of women. Because of this, others think of her with respect. Her very comportment communicates a gentle, gracious spirit.

Joy & Friendship

The woman of God is joyful and seeks companionship with those who share the same vision. For the daughter who has embraced the beauty of Christian girlhood, the richest friendships begin within her family, where she learns to love and honor, and first learns the joy of belonging to another.

Beautiful Girlhood Collection

When a girl plays with a doll...

...she is preparing to be a mommy someday. Her first role model is her own mother, and her first opportunity at role-playing is with her dolls. One of the sweetest aspects of being a mother is seeing my daughters imitate me as they play together with their dolls. With this in mind, we offer four original 18" dolls from the Beautiful Girlhood Collection for your girls to cherish for years to come and then pass on to future daughters. Liberty, Evangeline, Fidelia, and Abigail are made by Engel Doll Company, a premier European doll-maker which has made quality dolls since 1896. Exquisitely crafted, our dolls have rooted hair for easier brushing and styling, as well as articulate features enabling them to move about more freely. Each of these sweet little ladies wears a distinct, feminine gingham dress complete with bloomers, white socks, and white leather shoes. Your little girls can relive history when they dress their dolls in our specially designed, Vision Forum exclusive, historical costumes. Dress them up to brave the voyage to New England as Priscilla Mullins, help Lewis and Clark find the Northwest Passage as Sacagawea, serve tea at the White House as Dolley Madison, stroll the deck of the Titanic as Nan Harper, or climb the Alps as Maria von Trapp. True "little girl" dolls are rare in our age of fashion models and rushed childhood. Playing with Liberty, Evangeline, Fidelia, and Abigail will fill your daughter's childhood with memories to inspire her as she grows up to be a mommy.

A Light Kindled

The Story of Priscilla Mullins

After the first winter in Plymouth, there were only a few women alive in the tiny colony. One of them was Priscilla Mullins. She had traveled to Massachusetts with her father and mother, but both had perished, leaving her alone in the New World. Undaunted, Priscilla chose to stay rather than return to the “safety” of England. Priscilla trusted completely in her Savior and lived a long and fruitful life with her Pilgrim husband. Together they were blessed with eleven children and an estimated one million descendants! Hardback. 60 pgs. F

Dolley Madison Doll Dress

“She looked a queen. . . . Unassuming, dignity, sweetness, grace. It seems to me that such manners would disarm envy itself, and conciliate even enemies.” So wrote Dolley Madison’s biographer after observing the first lady at James Madison’s Inaugural Ball of 1809. The most popular and beloved of our American first ladies, her Christian character, kindness, generosity, and open hospitality are models for American girlhood today. All little girls love to dress up, and now your Beautiful Girlhood doll can dress like First Lady Dolley Madison in her delicate white empire dress with its royal blue waistline sash and soft, gauze purse and scarf. Elsie Dinsmore

Elsie Dinsmore

By Martha Finley

In the nineteenth century, millions of readers learned the meaning of godly womanhood from a little girl named Elsie. Her commitment to principle in the midst of adversity and her passionate love for Jesus Christ were the theme of twenty-eight volumes spanning her life. These original twelve volumes are presented just as a young lady would have found them one hundred years ago. Over the last several years, I have heard hundreds of reports from home schoolers and Christian families about the blessing these books have been in their lives. Elsie raises the standard of godly womanhood to new heights. Feminists will not be happy with Elsie. She is a God-honoring young woman who strives to solve problems while working through biblical authority structures. Hardback. F

There is a sacred window of time in a boy's life when everything is possible: he can rescue the damsel in distress, explore America with Lewis and Clark, or cross the Atlantic with the Pilgrims. Tragically, this window is shrinking because our modern culture is at war with courageous boyhood. Many have forgotten what it means to be a boy and dream the noble dreams of youth.

The time has come to rebuild a culture of courageous boyhood. The All-American Boy's Adventure Catalog is one step on that journey. Within these pages, you will find inspirational gifts and concepts to build the character of a boy. Every toy, tool, and book has been carefully selected and designed to inspire and motivate boys to dream big dreams for the glory of God. Boys can demonstrate faith in the face of battle with Sergeant York or build a treehouse with dad.

One of our goals is to demonstrate that the skills and experiences which historically made up the life of a boy were God-honoring vehicles for preparing him to be a man. He learns to explore because he is called to take dominion over the earth. He learns to emulate the lives of heroic Christians because he, too, is called to leadership.

Scripture is clear, "Where there is no vision, the people perish." Boys need vision. We humbly offer this catalog to you and the All-American boys in your family in the sincere hope that, together, we can rebuild a culture of courageous boyhood.

DOUGLAS W. PHILLIPS, ESQ., PRESIDENT

COURAGEOUS BOYHOOD IS...

Vision & Honor

"Where there is no vision, the people perish." The same is true of boys. Without a vision for manhood, boys will perish. But true vision is cultivated by honor. The courageous boy longs to honor his father and his mother and to not just succeed, but to succeed his godly parents.

Loyalty & Patriotism

Behind the courage of a truly faithful boy is gratitude for his family, his nation, and for the tender mercies of God in his life, motivating him to demonstrate an unflinching loyalty. Therefore, he has the heart of a son and the spirit of a patriot.

Faith & Fortitude

The first principle of courageous Christian boyhood is faith. True courage is an outgrowth of confidence in the sovereign will of God, the reflection of an abiding faith in Christ. The spirit of courageous boyhood is alive in the boy who perseveres through the many challenges of life.

Virtue & Duty

It takes courage to be a virtuous boy in an impure world. But the truly courageous boy is steadfast in his commitment to remain pure in body, mind, and spirit. He will not be governed by undisciplined passions, or swayed by dangerous peer influence, and learns to stand alone and unmovable in his convictions.

Dominion & Scholarship

The courageous boy is on a mission from God to take dominion over the earth. This is why he loves to learn, to investigate, to master disciplines, and to search out the mysteries of creation. His basic textbook for life is the Holy Scriptures.

Adventure & Evangelism

The courageous boy is one who longs for the thrill of adventure and eschews the life of ease and sloth. This desire is not a pagan quest for self-glory, but is in pursuit of a higher cause—the advancement of the Gospel and Kingdom of Jesus Christ.

DIRTY OLD COINS ANCIENT ROMAN COIN KIT

Buried across Europe are treasure troves of ancient Roman coins. To hide their wealth, Roman citizens often buried their coins, but many died before recovering them, leaving the coins hidden for centuries. Now, with the help of modern-day treasure seekers, these coins are available to you. With this kit, you can discover, clean, preserve, and study your very own ancient coins.

As you remove centuries of dirt from these coins, you will be the first person to look upon them in more than fifteen hundred years. Over the course of the cleaning process, the true identity and value of your coins will slowly be revealed. They will captivate you as you wonder how they were lost and who may have last held them. Were they held by a third-century Christian or martyr?

The coins you will find in your kit parallel the history of the early Church. Will your coin carry the visage of a tyrant who persecuted Christians? Will it belong to the Christian Constantinian dynasty of the 300s? In any case, these will probably be the oldest man-made items you have ever held. Special return policy. Calling all outdoor adventure boys! In ancient time of battle, warriors would unleash the fearsome power of the trebuchet on an enemy's castle walls. One of the most famous, "The Warwolf," was used by King Edward I in 1304 to batter down the walls of Stirling Castle.

Now, in the safety of a large field, you can experience the excitement of the trebuchet with our version of the Warwolf (pictured at right). Capable of slinging a golf ball up to 300 ft., made of poplar and 3/4" plywood, this sturdy machine can be built and prepared for use within two days. THREE-MAN SLINGSHOT

My family and other members of the Vision Forum staff had an unforgettable experience with the Three-Man Slingshot. We were invited to the home of the Zes family where, in honor of Independence

Day, the Zes brigade constructed life-size wooden "Redcoat" soldiers, masterfully painted them, and then created an artillery capable of wiping out the British invaders. Enter the Three-Man Slingshot.

Using black-cloth cannon balls filled with old Y2K beans, our little militia spent hours "shelling" the British menace that faced us across the green. Though it took a bit of practice and cooperation with the slingshot, we were soon knocking down the wooden soldiers that had invaded the Zes estate. Our Three-Man Slingshot is a humdinger. Featuring rip-proof vinyl grips and a heavy-duty denim pouch, this hurler can launch water balloons or other like-weight objects up to 150 yards. Constructed with high-grade surgical tubing, this slingshot is designed to endure many years of launching fun. 6+ 89875 | $18

THE FORGOTTEN HEROES OF LIBERTY

The Chaplains and Clergy of the American Revolution

By J.T. Headley

New!

In the pre-dawn light of April 19, 1775, Pastor Jonas Clark rallied the minutemen of Lexington to stand against the invading Lobsterbacks. As the British column emerged through the morning fog, the patriots "fired the shot heard round the world," launching the American War for Independence. The fires of liberty in the colonies were lit through the passionate preaching of pastors such as Clark, Stiles, Dwight, Tennent, Spring, and Witherspoon. These pastors and chaplains not only sounded the charge, but they took to the field in defense of liberty. They are men who risked their all and gave their lives for the freedoms that we enjoy today—men who are truly American heroes. This remarkable book tells their story. Roy Rogers Rides Again!

Howdy, Pardner! Remember the good ol' days when singin' cowboys taught little fellas to be courageous gentlemen by their excellent manners, thrillin' heroism, and Western moxie? Well, ya properly don't if ya was born after 1950. But some of us ol' timers still luv those good ol' days when ya could watch films as a family without havin' to 'pologize for the movie or bleep out ev'ry other word. That's why we dun put together some of our favorite stories from the life of America's Christian cowboy: Roy Rogers.

Y'all can ride again with Roy and his horse Trigger as they go plum yonder 'cross the Rio Grande or along the Santa Fe trail.

One reason why I think y'all will like 'em is 'cuz they is mighty clean. Ain't no kissin' and no cussin' in these here videos. Ain't no psychological analysis of the good guys. Jus' a lot of ropin', ridin', and bad guy catchin'. It's real easy to tell the hero 'cuz he wears a big ol' white hat, sings real purdy, and treats the ladies real special-like. That's 'cuz Roy was a good ol' fashioned Christian cowboy and gentleman. But folks, I got to offer y'all a big 'Texas warnin': Please do not order these here videos if ya are a pacifist or if ya think that horses should have dominion over man. Ya just won't like 'em, Pardner. Oh, yeah: please don't order these here videos if ya get offended by women dressin' real feminine like neither. F

We first discovered these swords during our 2003 Stonewall Jackson Tour of the Shenandoah Valley. Fearless Flyboy, Faithful Father

COMING IN ON A WING
AND A PRAYER

By Kelly J. Bradrick

When a local barnstormer offered a flight to a little boy in exchange for one of his mother's home-cooked meals, young Bill Brown discovered his life-long fascination with aviation. Years later, he would grow up around the home of the man who would become the most famous pilot of the Second World War—Jimmy Doolittle of the “Doolittle Raiders.” Later, Bill became an eighteen-year-old P-51 fighter pilot performing daring raids from battlefields like Iwo Jima. The same Bill Brown who would be shot down during an aerial combat mission over Japan would grow up to be a dynamic servant of the Cross and faithful father. A featured character in the Vision Forum film The League of Grateful Sons, Bill Brown is now the subject of a thrilling story of combat, faith, and fatherhood told through the eyes of his granddaughter. In this beautifully designed, pictorially rich tale, Kelly Bradrick recounts the life of her flyboy grandfather in the form of a letter to generations yet to be born. THE SINKING OF THE TITANIC AND GREAT SEA DISASTERS

Edited by Marshall Logan

Introduction by Douglas W. Phillips

Years ago, I met Bob Garner, executive producer at Focus on the Family Films. When he was a boy, his grandmother showed him a copy of an old, illustrated book about the Titanic. The book left a deep impression on his seven-year-old heart. Years later, while working with Robert Ballard, discoverer of the Titanic, God used the memory of that book and the story of the Titanic to bring him to the Lord. Intrigued, I asked my staff to track down an original copy. What I found fascinated me: the true account of men who gave up their lives for women and children. We have received hundreds of testimonies from families that have used this book for devotionals and from boys and girls who just can't put it down. Hardback. 358 pgs.  BOOK 42411 | $24

Smith’s testimony: ‘I join my regiment, and march and fight as if there had been no Birkenhead disaster. It is soldiering—and it is discipline.’ My, how times have changed. Thank you. I will be using it to continue teaching my boys about courageous manhood.” Paperback. 83 pgs.

Animals that Proclaim Christ

INCREDIBLE CREATURES THAT DEFY EVOLUTION

How can geckos walk upside down, even on glass, and not fall? How do fireflies and glowworms create pure light that generates no heat? Are there really creatures that produce fire to defend themselves?

Here are three absolutely wonderful family films that will captivate your children and teach them to defend their faith using animals. The Incredible Creatures that Defy Evolution series enters the fascinating world of animals to reveal sophisticated and complex designs that shake the traditional foundations of evolutionary theory, demonstrating that animal designs can only be explained as the handiwork of an all-powerful Creator. Featuring Dr. Jobe Martin, once a staunch evolutionist who realized animals' abilities could not be explained by evolutionism. Available on DVD or VHS.

Best Creation Films

MOODY SCIENCE VIDEO COLLECTION, VOLUMES 1-19

When my first son was born, there was only one film series that I thoroughly trusted. I knew that these high-quality videos would be free from bad attitudes, false philosophies, chaotic images, and noxious sounds. I also knew that the films would cultivate a taste for beauty, an appreciation for the natural world, a love of science, and a sound perspective on the Creator. And they were fun, too! Thirteen years and seven children later, my opinion is still the same. For my money, the Moody Science Video Classics are among the most God-honoring, entertaining, sound, instructive, and family-friendly films available, and because these films touch on history, science, and theology, we find them to be very helpful supplements to our home education program.

These films truly capture the imagination of a child. Dr. Irwin Moon of Moody Science turned to the world of the Venus fly trap, secret technologies of ancient man, and many more mysteries of Creation to entertain and teach character. Hundreds of thousands of children, like my own, have grown up with the memorable stories documented in these wonderful films, and I am always amazed to see with what accuracy they recount detail after detail.

“One of the best investments for our home-schooling children. Not only are they timeless, since they point to the Creator, but they speak to all age levels—my children, ages 6-18, talk together about each video for hours after viewing it!”

Biblical Egyptology

UNWRAPPING THE PHARAOHS: HOW EGYPTIAN ARCHAEOLOGY CONFIRMS THE BIBLICAL TIMELINE

New!

By John Ashton and David Brown

Egypt—the land of hieroglyphics, pyramids, mummies, and home to a nation which persecuted the Israelites and in consequence was judged by Jehovah with amazing plagues! Ever since Moses led the children of Israel out of Egypt, the country has been a land of mysteries. Egyptology has long been the domain of evolutionary archaeologists and chronologists who have used their work to challenge the authority of Scripture. In Unwrapping the Pharaohs, the authors have tackled a subject that has fascinated American boys and girls for over a hundred years, doing so in a manner that instructs, excites, and brings glory to God. The Book that Caused a National Controversy

GRAND CANYON: A DIFFERENT VIEW

"Separation of church and state!" they cried. "Keep religion out of science," they demanded. In 2004, liberal newspaper editors and evolutionary scientists across the nation dragged Grand Canyon National Park into a raging controversy over this beautiful, fully-illustrated volume compiled by long-time Grand Canyon guide Tom Vail and carried in the National Park bookstores. The problem? Tom Vail honored the God of the Bible in a book sold on public grounds. Even more, Grand Canyon: A Different View presented in layman's terms an uncompromising biblical perspective on the formation and geology of the most famous canyon in the world. Mr. Vail offers a simple explanation of the Canyon's formation: God's world-convulsing judgment at the time of the Global Flood. The book had such an impact that the presidents of seven leading scientific societies issued a joint letter to the National Park Superintendent calling for its ousting, claiming it to be "at odds with the well-documented scientific understanding of Earth history." Yet the book remains for sale at Grand Canyon National Park. Give this book to your family and remind them that God's Word will not be silenced. Filled with breathtaking images. The True Story of Noah's Ark

Finally—a visually beautiful and biblically accurate family book about Noah's Ark. The typical children's books on this subject picture a Chinese junket-type vessel with smiling giraffes sticking their heads out of the windows. Such images lead to viewing Noah's Flood as little more than a nursery fable.

The truth is that the Ark was enormous, the animals on Noah's Ark probably looked different from modern ones, and they included dinosaurs like the behemoth in the book of Job. The True Story of Noah's Ark sets the record straight. And the images of the interior of the Ark are like nothing you have seen before. This is not only an account of judgment and mercy, but a tale of biblical parenting. It is the story of a "preacher of righteousness" so successful at raising his children that, for one hundred years, his three sons followed their father by helping him build an ark "for the saving of his household."

The Ancients in Antarctica

MAPS OF THE ANCIENT SEA KINGS

Thousands of years before Columbus discovered America or Magellan circumnavigated the globe, there were ancient sea kings who traveled the oceans from pole to pole. The Phoenicians, the Minoans, and other seafaring giants have left us evidence of their journeys across the "great waters" in the form of maps that date as far back as the Ice Age. The discovery of these amazing maps, including a pre-Ice Age Antarctica, has baffled evolutionists, but sheds light on the amazing biblical account of a post-Babel dispersion. This scholarly book is not a Christian treatise, but is helpful for creationists because it digs deep into the story of these millennia-old maps and the long-forgotten mariners who once surveyed the seas. “Jim Irwin’s adventures on the moon made him an American hero. His use of those adventures to glorify God and point others to Christ make him a Christian hero.”

—DR. JOHN MORRIS,
PRESIDENT, ICR

A Christian Hero DESTINATION: MOON

By Astronaut James Irwin

The eighth man to walk on the moon took the entire Bible seriously because he took its Author seriously. He rejoiced in the Genesis account of origins. He believed that God created the world in six, twenty-four-hour days. That man was Col. James Irwin, the lunar vehicle commander for Apollo 15.

Destination: Moon recounts his amazing physical and spiritual journey to the moon.

With spectacular

photos and “you are there” text, you will experience what it’s like to train for four years as an astronaut. You will feel the emotions of lift-off, see Earth from space, and explore the moon. As amazing as his accomplishment was, Astronaut Irwin viewed it as insignificant compared to the accomplishments of the Creator. Col. Irwin spent the rest of his life sharing this message: “Jesus walking on Earth is more important than man walking on the moon.” His legacy of faith and discovery is an inspiration even now, thirty-five years after he landed on the moon. Visually stunning. Hardback. 64 pgs.  BOOK 87562 | $16

The Return of the Bible Carried by Reformers and Pilgrim Fathers

THE 1599 GENEVA BIBLE

In a very real sense, we as Americans owe much of our rich spiritual heritage to the Geneva Bible. Nearly forgotten today, this version of the Holy Scriptures created the conditions for a Christian reformation of life and culture in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries the likes of which the world had never seen.

In 1553, Mary Tudor ascended the throne of England and set about to stamp out the Reformation. Bloody Mary's vicious crusade drove scores of English reformers to Geneva, including some of the finest biblical scholars in history. Together, these men produced a new English Bible based on the original languages—the Geneva Bible.

As the first English Bible to be widely read, it penetrated hearts and transformed minds. Its mighty influence was manifest in the lives of Knox, Cromwell, and Shakespeare. And it was the 1599 Geneva Bible that the Pilgrims read as they arrived in the New World in 1620, deriving principles from its pages that helped lay the foundation-stones of liberty in the western hemisphere.

Vision Forum is pleased to announce the re-release of the Geneva Bible in a genuine leather edition that features word-for-word accuracy with the 1599 version, original cross references and study notes, and modern spelling. Approx. 1,700 pgs.
